The purpose of processing your personal data

We process your personal data for the purpose of exchanging health information between the Danish Civil Aviation and Railway Authority and you as certificate holder or as certificate applicant, the Aeronautical Medical Examiners (AME's) and Aeronautical Medical Centres (AeMC's) in connection with issue, validity, revalidation, renewal of the medical certificates required for flight crews in civil aviation, for air traffic controllers and student air traffic controllers and for Flight Information Service Operators (FIS operators) and student FIS-operators.

We also exchange your health information in connection with the Danish Civil Aviation and Railway Authority's enforcement and oversight of the AMEs, the AeMCs and the holders of a health certificate. If the Danish Civil Aviation and Railway Authority finds it necessary, your health information may also be exchanged with other Competent Authorities, EASA and the European Commission.

The legal basis for processing your personal data

The legal basis for our processing of your personal data is stipulated in the Cape Town Convention

Categories of personal data

We process the following categories of personal data about you:

- General personal data (name, address, phone number and date of birth)
- Sensitive personal data (health information)

Recipients or categories of recipients

We pass on or may give your personal data to the following recipients:

- The relevant AME, AeMC, other Competent Authorities, EASA or the European Commission.
- The Police and/or the Danish Prosecution.

The source of your personal data

The personal data are given in the application for health certificate which your AME or the AeMC has submitted to us via Virk.dk.

Filing of your personal data

In accordance with the Danish Archiving Act and the provisions of the Danish National Archives we regularly submit data we are required to file to the Danish National Archives.

We keep the aeromedical records for a minimum period of at least 10 years after expiry of the last medical certificate, cf. Regulation 1178/2011, Part ARA.MED.150, litra b, and Regulation 2015/340, Part ATCO.AR.F.001, cf. Regulation 1178/2011, Part ARA.MED.150, litra b.

The data we receive that are not subject to our duty to file will be deleted when they are no longer needed.

Your rights

According to the General Data Protection Regulation you have a number of rights regarding our processing of your personal data. If you want to exercise your rights, please contact us.

Right to see your data (right of insight)

You have the right to see the data we process about you (the right of insight), or to apply for access to documents.

Right of correction

You have the right to have incorrect data on you corrected.

Right of deletion

In special cases you have the right to have data we keep on you deleted before the date on which we generally delete data. This only applies to data which we are not obliged to file.

Right to limitation of processing

In special cases you have the right to have the processing of your personal data limited. If you have the right to have the processing limited, we may from then only process the data – with the exception of filing – with your consent or with a view to establishing, setting up or defending legal claims, or with a view to protecting an individual or vital public interest.

Right to objection

In special cases you have the right to object to the legal processing of your personal data.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guide to data subject rights at www.datatilsynet.dk.

Complaints to the Danish Data Protection Agency
